The Resistance of Body

A Study of the Utopian Narrative and Dystopian Narrative in the 20th Century West

Z hao R ourou

Abstract: As is known, the writing enthusiasm in utopia has quickly weakened which is clearly shown in the reduced number of texts and the emergence of dystopia during World War II and the cold war. With an analysis of such three important literary facts of utopia as dystopia, feminist utopia and cyberpunk as well as related theoretical discourses (namely, body theory, feminism and posthumanism), the present paper believes that in the 20th century utopia is not just fading away, but turns from the blueprint of society to the impulse of body.

Keywords: utopia; dystopia; posthumanism; feminism; cyberpunk
